v.	§	C.R. NO. C-08-451
	§
THELMA MELISSA GUZMAN	§

ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

On July 16, 2008, a detention hearing was held in accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f). The following requires detention of defendant pending trial in this case:

(1) There is probable cause to believe the defendant committed an offense for which a term of imprisonment is a maximum of five years in prison pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 841(b)(1)(D).

The evidence against defendant meets the probable cause standard. The findings and conclusions contained in the Pretrial Services Report are adopted. There is no condition or combination of conditions that will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required.

Defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. Defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on a request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

ORDERED this 16th day of July 2008.
